He did not say we were sending the 1797, but simply asked if you would be interested in it at the price named.

Mr. C. D. Pierce,

Dear Sir:-

Your favor enclosing $3.10 duly received. We send you herewith the finest half dollars we have of the dates given and trust some of them will please you. Should you desire to keep either of the 1802 half dollars sent you, returning the one previously sent and paying the difference, you may do so. Shall be glad to know what other coins you wish to purchase and we will send them on approval to you. We have not at present a 1796 half dollar in stock. We send the only 1797 we have which is a very fine specimen. Would a 1797 half dollar very fine, at $70 interest you.

Yours respectfully,

S. H. & H. Chapman
